

VANUATU UPDATE

The Cookes

Danny and Jen Cooke and their four children serve the Presbyterian Church of Vanuatu, on the island of Tanna. Not so long ago, Danny and Jen worked with Quiz Worx in their ministry to children in churches and schools. Quiz Worx have produced a great video to tell people how the Cookes are sharing Jesus around the world. (If you'd like to support the Cookes in their ministry on Tanna, contact us by sending an email to finance@apwm.org.au). You can watch the video here: shrtm.nu/TR3g

Part of Rob and El's ministry preparation has involved being mentored by Ian and Jenni Smith

The Falls

Rob and El Falls and their three children are preparing to serve at Talua in Vanuatu from early 2021 onwards. El recently gave birth to Asher and Rob has completed his theological degree and has commenced post graduate studies. They are now looking for individuals and churches who will partner with them in prayer and finance so that they can serve at Talua. You can watch a recent interview with them at shrtm.nu/nOf7

INDIGENOUS MINISTRY

Over the last few months there has been a great deal of discussion about Australia's Indigenous community. As followers of Christ, how can we respond? In the early days of their ministry at Mount Druitt, Rick and Kayleen Manton served alongside an Anglican minister, the Rev Neville Naden. Neville now serves with the Bush Church Aid Society and in a recent interview with the Pastor's Heart podcast, he made some extremely helpful comments about Indigenous Christians in Australia. Indigenous Ministry Sunday July 12

Commencing on Sunday 12th July, APWM launched an appeal to support its Indigenous ministry and we thank those who have given so generously in support of this vital ministry. If you'd like to know more, you can watch an APWM video about this here vimeo.com/426153855

Bob Quinn

This will be an annual appeal to be held on the second Sunday in July.

"The harvest is plentiful,
but the labourers are few;
therefore pray earnestly to the Lord of the harvest to send out labourers into his harvest."

REACHOUT 2020 IS ONLINE!

APWM belongs to Missions Interlink which runs ReachOut, an annual mission conference which is held in Katoomba on the second weekend in September. The conference seeks to challenge and mobilise people of all ages to engage in global mission.

Like many other conferences in 2020, ReachOut is running as an online conference on Saturday 12th September, 2020 from 9:00am to 5:30pm. This year's speakers are Tim Silberman from SMBC (and Cornerstone Presbyterian Church) and Peter Oyugi from African International Mission. The program includes electives. The cost is $45 per person but for pastors the conference is free! For details see:

www.reachoutmissions.com.au/conference

A youth night is planned for Friday 11th September. ReachOut will provide youth leaders with a missions program.

It will include a Bible talk to inspire, music videos and ideas of how to be involved in God's global mission.

Email mail@reachoutmissions.com.au if your youth group is interested.

APWM NATIONAL OFFICE

During the various NSW COVID-19 lockdown phases, the APWM National Office staff have worked from home. At the time of writing it's expected that from early August the staff will be back in the office at Christ College.

APWM VIDEOS

From time to time APWM produces various mission videos such as the recent one on Indigenous ministry, Cyclone Harold and COVID. These could be shown for example in church or small groups.

You can find them on the APWM Vimeo page:
