

The National Office

Kevin Murray is the National Director of APWM National. He lives in Sydney and is married to Julie and they have four adult children. Kevin's responsibilities include the teaching and promotion of global mission, coordinating APWM's ministry at a national level and doing administration. He is often interstate visiting Assemblies, Churches and missionaries on home assignment. From time to time he travels overseas to visit missionaries and hold talks with Church leaders.

Together with the State APWM Committees, he seeks to recruit and encourage those whom God leads to serve through global mission. The position involves networking with pastors and churches throughout Australia, mission agencies and the State APWM Committees. He is available to speak at churches informing them of the wider missionary work of the Presbyterian Church.

He can be reached at 0421 366 720.

Bruce Campbell serves as the Accounts Clerk, Monday & Thursday, and handles most financial enquiries. Bruce can be contacted at finance@apwm.org.au or phone 02-8073 7493.

Kevin and Family

Sheryl Sarkoezy serves as the Director's Assistant and often the one that most people deal with on the phone. Sheryl can be contacted national@apwm.org.au or phone 02-8073 7490.

We have a bimonthly 'Email Update' which seeks to inform the whole church of the prayer needs of our missionaries. To receive this, please contact Sheryl.
