

Want to stay up to date?

APWM publishes a regular email newsletter 'APWM Partnership News', that provides a glimpse into what God is doing around the world as the gospel goes out. You can sign up for the newsletter by sending an email to national@apwm.org.au asking to be put on the APWM Partnership News list, or you can scan this QR code and sign yourself up.

Wills and Bequests

If you would like to include APWM in your Will, then you may like to use these words as a guide:

"I give to the Presbyterian Church Property Trust for the National Committee of the Australian Presbyterian World Mission [here insert a description of the bequest together with the amount of money or description of property or other gift] free of testamentary charges and duties for [here insert 'its general purpose' or the specific purpose you desire] and I declare that the receipt of the Secretary of the Trust shall be sufficient to discharge to my Executors."

Please provide this wording to your Solicitor when seeking advice and assistance in drawing up your Will.

APWM is the Indigenous ministry and Overseas mission arm of the Presbyterian Church of Australia.

After this I looked and there before me was a great multitude that no one could count, from every nation, tribe, people and language, standing before the throne and in front of the Lamb.

APWM's Four Ministry Principles

Send

APWM sends suitably gifted and qualified Christian workers to serve alongside national Christians. This takes place as God raises up workers for His harvest field who are supported by the congregations and individuals who belong to the Presbyterian Church of Australia.

Partner

As far as possible, APWM works in partnership with overseas Presbyterian Partner Churches, and other gospel-minded workers, in countries such as:

- Ethiopia • India • Japan • Malawi • Myanmar • South Sudan • Timor Leste • Vanuatu • Zambia

Train

APWM seeks to train suitably gifted and qualified Christian nationals so that they can train other nationals in ministry. This takes place through:

- Sending workers to equip and resource national Christians
- Assisting with postgraduate theological training
- Overseas short-term training seminars
- Australian Indigenous ministry resourcing

Resource

APWM seeks to provide support so that national Christians can carry out ministry themselves. This takes place through providing resources such as:

- Bibles & theological resources
- Upgrades & repairs to buildings
- Disaster relief
- Ministry materials for pastors
- Financial assistance for Presbyterian Partner Churches in hardship.

How you can partner with APWM

By praying

Your prayers enable the gospel to reach the ends of the earth so that people hear of the greatness of God and His mercy shown in Christ.

By encouraging your congregation

Encourage your minister, elders and other congregational members to take a greater interest in overseas mission. Take an active interest in some missionaries. Pray about overseas mission. Ask your Committee of Management to put it into the congregation's budget.

By giving

We thank God for your partnership. APWM depends largely on gifts for its day to day operation. Your gifts enable the gospel to go out to the ends of the earth.

We ask that you consider leaving a gift to APWM in your Will to help us in continuing to declare God's gospel throughout the world. (Please see over for details).

Please contact APWM on (02) 8074 9740 or email us at national@apwm.org.au for more details.
